

THIS BUSINESS SUPPORTED BY LOCAL DOLLARS

Quail Ridge is a locally owned 18-hole public golf course, where the passion for the game meets the warmth of a community. Nestled in the heart of Asotin County, our course offers a picturesque setting for golf enthusiasts of all skill levels. With meticulously maintained fairways and greens, challenging holes, and breathtaking views, we provide an exceptional golfing experience that keeps players coming back for more.

Our commitment to supporting the local community goes beyond just providing a great game. We believe in the power of buying local, and by choosing to play at our course, you're not only enjoying a round of golf, but also contributing to the growth and prosperity of our vibrant community. Our owners and employees firmly believe in the importance of supporting local businesses and organizations. We take pride in our role as a community hub and strive to create partnerships with local initiatives and nonprofits, fostering a strong sense of unity and giving back to the place we call home. Join us on the greens, where golfing excellence and community support come together seamlessly.
